Do your jokes begin something like So, a guy walks into a bar . . . or A priest, a minister, and a rabbi . . . ? Tired of the same-old formulaic humor and worn-out riddles? Well, youre in luck. The Booklovers Book of Jokes, Quips and Quotes spans centuries to provide a collection chock-full of bookish humor, pithy sayings, one-liners, and just plain silly thoughts. With sections from some of the masters of witty writing, including the best barbs from Oscar Wilde; insults from Shakespeare; and wise words from Jane Austen, John Milton, and P. G. Wodehouse, this jovial little book is a cornucopia of delight and light relief for literary lovers everywhere.
