Philip Storey : Burying my waders and other stories before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Burying my waders and other stories:

IN this collection of short stories, the author covers a range of subjects, including the importance of listening to dead men, which hat to wear in the rain, why fly fishing in March is like shooting arrows at a Welshman and of course, why this fly might be better than that one. And in keeping with the best angling writing, most of the stories presented here aren't really about fishing at all. Philip is the author of the bestselling Complete Bad Angler, Year of the Spider and Cooking for Dads
