Leland Gregory : Bush-Whacked: Chronicles of Government Stupidity before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bush-Whacked: Chronicles of Government Stupidity:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. hilarious, great compilation of the Bush era ineptitudeBy JillThis book is hilarious, starring none other than G W Bush. A fantastic collection of all the bird-brained comments made by the man in charge and other equally pathetic quotations or activities of him and his cabinet. He makes himself look like a fool-- and actually makes me feel good about my own intelligence! Maybe I've got a chance for the Presidency?!!2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Real-Life Horror as HumorBy N. BilmesThis book has a funny cover, and lots of stories that would be funny if they weren't true. But the stories are true, and that makes this a collection of horror stories starring an incredibly inept President and featuring many examples of government largesse and waste. This is a great book to give to someone who's a staunch Republican. You can then have them turn the pages and try to justify why the events reported on any of those pages are helpful or intelligent. Horrifying. 2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. this book is great By A Customer I would also recommend "an incoveint truth" by the man, the myth, the legend, AL GORE. This book is cool too and I would recommend it to all of you co-workers that pick on you and call you Sneak King

"It's important for people to know that I'm the president of everybody." --President George W. Bush, from Air Force One, January 14, 2005 Who Leland Gregory voted for in the 2004 presidential election is his business. But when George W. Bush won a second term, Gregory had to be doing cartwheels around his computer. The humorist, after all, makes a career of recording human behavior at, let's just say, its less-than-brilliant moments. Bush-Whacked does a thorough job of tracking the president's language mangling as well as the inept bungling of his administration: * "And so during these holiday seasons, we thank our blessings . . ." --GWB at Fort Belvoir, Va., December 21, 2004. * Through bureaucratic mismanagement, parts for a top-secret spy plane, originally intended for destruction, were discovered being auctioned off on eBay. --New York Post * "(T)he illiteracy level of our children are appalling." --GWB, Washington, D.C., January 23, 2004 With his expert nose for nuttiness, Gregory includes numerous perplexing quotes, wacky anecdotes, and weird one-liners in this hysterical collection. This isn't the president at his finest, just Dubya at his funniest.
