Karen Barefoot : Busted before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Busted:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Perfect GiftBy James R. CochraneMy wife had been feeling called to provide some sort of tangible encouragement to a friend with breast cancer and had been at a loss as to what form it should take. Within a few days she learned of the publication of Karen Barefoot's book. It was the perfect gift. Not overwhelming, yet weighty, easy to read and savor in small doses, her friend felt my wife's encouragement and, more importantly, the love of God. Thank you Karen for putting it all on paper. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Faith, fun and a future

By linda Jannette
In this book, Karen has captured one of the most important lessons of life: with faith we have a future. Even when faced with one of the biggest fears a women can have, Karen's faith saw her through. Coupling the Bible passages she quotes and her witty responses to just about everything, this is a handbook on how to take on Life's challenges. Thank you for sharing your journey. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Perfect Combination!
By Randy Hale
I just had to write a review on this awesome book written by a breast cancer survivor with the heart of Christ and the sense of humor of a comedian!!! Touching, funny and wonderfully written. I have given it to many upon being diagnosed with breast cancer but all will enjoy the authors writing style. An A+++!!! Buy more than one as you'll want to share it with many others!

Imagine finding a treasure map. A note at the top says, "The journey will be difficult, but I promise you, the treasure at the end will be well worth the trip. Love, God". You're excited at first, but as you begin studying the map, you find clues like "Defective Parts Recall - Breast Overhaul", "Chemical Warfare Ahead", "Going Under... the knife, sedation, the skin". That's how it felt when I was diagnosed with breast cancer. All of a sudden, I was living my own version of Survivor! Feeling clueless, I simply walked the path He had laid out for me while keeping my eyes on the prize, Jesus Christ. Along the way, He continually surprised me with fresh insights, blessings at every turn, and a growing intimacy that's indescribable! At the end, X marked the spot: the priceless treasure of a deeper, abiding relationship with Christ and joy unspeakable! I discovered the priceless gem of Genesis 15:1: "I am your shield, your very great reward." Plus, I received a bonus; I now have my very own new treasure chest! I invite you to come along on my treasure hunt. I'll keep you abreast of my uplifting adventure as we follow God's 'treasure map' in this serious, yet light-hearted book. Proverbs 17:22 says, "A cheerful heart is good medicine". I hope that if you're going through your own cancer experience, you will come away with a more cheerful heart, renewed hope, and encouragement for your future. Lover of the Lord, Servant of God, Loving Wife, Proud Mom and Adoring Grammy describe Karen Barefoot, in that order. She and her husband, Don, live in Oak Ridge, NC, where they are blessed to serve Christ in a variety of different roles.
