Leland Gregory : Canaduh: Idiots from the Frozen North (Stupid History) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Canaduh: Idiots from the Frozen North (Stupid History):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. And You Thought the McKenzie Brothers Were Dumb, Eh?! By Mike O'Connor Leland Gregory ventures into the Great White North in his latest grab-bag collection of idiotic people doing what comes naturally. CANADUH, a 2010 Andrews McMeel release, serves up 156 pages that celebrate IDIOTS FROM THE FROZEN NORTH. The antics that can be found in Gregory's book range from a Manitoba man found dead due to "choking to death after biting calluses off his feet" to the Ontario native who, needing "something to do," jumped from balcony to balcony on his high-rise apartment complex. Bad idea: he lost his grip seven floors up. Other idiotic hosers: The Quebec cheese-maker who dropped 1,700 pounds of cheddar into a lake to see if cheese tasted better when ripened in cold water. Unable to locate the dumped cheese, he then spent $50,000 on scuba divers and sonar equipment trying to find it; no luck. A British Columbia native tried to stow away on a ship leaving Vancouver by bungee-jumping down to the ship from a nearby bridge. Unfortunately, he misjudged the distance and slammed into the ship's deck then rebounded and slammed into another part of the deck before finally splashing into the water. Battered and bruised, he was rescued. A Montreal attorney, defending a man accused of killing a Montreal police officer, faced disciplinary action after he was overheard singing "I Shot the Sheriff" in the courthouse. A Toronto couple, watching TV, got into a fight over who was prettier - Christina Applegate or Katey Sagal. By the time the police and ambulance arrived, the man had a broken arm, broken shoulder and various wounds. The woman had stab wounds in her chest, back and legs. Go figure! Gregory fans will enjoy this latest sampling of idiocy. Recommended.

A new collection of outrageous, laugh-out-loud anecdotes about the weird and wacky activities of our Canadian neighbors, by the author of New York Times best-sellers Stupid American History and America's Dumbest Criminals. From absurd 911 calls to presidential philosophizing to his New York Times best-selling Stupid American History, Leland Gregory generates the best laughs by exposing the worst of human nature. Now, Gregory--sets his sights north to the frozen tundra of Canada to skewer Canadians, in Canaduh: Idiots from the Frozen North. Inside Canaduh: Idiots from the Frozen North, Gregory offers hundreds of accounts of Canadian stupidity at its most random and bizarre, starring French-speaking Quebecois, Yukon fur trappers, and Arctic Circle Eskimos. Because the stories Leland chronicles are just that unbelievable, each anecdote, quote, or factoid is presented with relevant background information--including its verified news source.

About the Author The jokes, wacky anecdotes, and inane quotes in Leland Gregory's Stupid-themed anthologies showcase the best of human nature at its worst. Through his Twitter handle of @ChronicStupid, Leland shares headlines, quips, and unbelievable feats of folly culled from print, online, and broadcast media around the globe. He has authored more than a dozen humor titles, including What's the Number for 911? and the New York Times best-sellers Stupid American History and America's Dumbest Criminals. A tireless promoter, he has made hundreds of radio and television appearances, including multiple appearances on NBC's Today show.
