Mary Kathleen Glavich : Catholic School Kids Say the Funniest Things before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Catholic School Kids Say the Funniest Things:

These dozens of anecdotes about Catholic school life have been collected from the Sisters of Notre Dame during their long history of grade-school teaching. Heard in the class or passed on by parents, these true stories will tickle your funny bone while bringing back memories of your children's or your own years in Catholic school. Black and white cartoons throughout highlight the fun. A treasury of humor and nostalgia, this book-- · includes incidents that range from the laugh-out-loud funny to the dear and the poignant. · will amuse and stir everyone's heart, whether Catholic or not. · makes a perfect gift for parochial school and CCD teachers, clergy and religious, Catholic parents and grandparents.

These stories brings back so many amusing memories of Catholic school upbringing. It will put a smile on your face. --
