The drawings of cat antics really capture their actions and behaviors - very amusing - some made me laugh out loud (again). Really a fun book - just bought two from to give as birthday gifts to cat owners I know.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. My catsBy L. JonesIts like Jeffrey Brown was watching my cats! I reply enjoyed this little book. Laughed out loud several times.Great!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. You will chuckle while reading this graphic novelBy MichiAnother one of Jeffrey Brown's random hardcover books. Very adorable drawings of the things cats do in their spare time. If people get this book, also look into other Jeffrey Brown's Cat Getting Out of a Bag hardcover book as well. His Star War books are also great books if you want to begin collecting his popular works.

Cartoonist Jeffrey Brown's drawings perfectly capture the humor and quirkiness of cats in all their strange and charming glory. Following the success of Cat Getting Out of a Bag, this all-new collection of color and black-and-white comic strips loosely follows the adventures of a pair of cats as they explore the world around them, indoors and out. Adventures include taking a nap, licking a shoe, attacking dust particles, hiding in cabinets, pouncing on fallen leaves, confronting the vacuum cleaner, patrolling the yard, and purring up a stormall adorably rendered in Brown's immediate and irresistible style. Sure to delight anyone who lives with cats and appreciates their sweet and batty behavior, this beautifully packaged gift book is the cat's meow.

About the Author Jeffrey Brown has written and illustrated numerous graphic novels and comics. His work has been featured in McSweeney's and on NPR's This American Life. He lives in Chicago.
