Sarah Rosedahl : Chickens! Illustrated Chicken Breeds A to Z Coloring Book before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chickens! Illustrated Chicken Breeds A to Z Coloring Book:

4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Hoping for more detailBy S. CottrellI have to say I'm rather disappointed. If you're expecting detail to color in you will be too. Each page, with exception to maybe one or 2 is simply an outline of a chicken. No feathers to color in, no separate hackles, nada. I don't think it's interesting enough even for a 2 year old.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Only buy for a childBy AngelGreat concept bad pictures they looked like they were for young children0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Jan chaseMy Granddaughter is so into Chicken information that she loves this book

A companion to the popular "Chickens! Illustrated Chicken Breeds A to Z", the Chicken Coloring Book includes over 40 pages of chicken breeds, decorative chickens, friends and foes. This coloring book is created in the same whimsical style as "Chickens!" and is designed for chicken lovers of all ages. Use this book as an educational tool, research chicken breeds, learn about their colors and patterns, create your own Zentangle patterns or just have fun coloring!

About the Author Sarah Rosedahl is an artist and recovering software engineer. After working in high tech for 30 years in California and New Orleans, Sarah now lives on a small farm in Vermont where she is inspired by the wildlife and agriculture of the Lake Champlain Islands. Sarah paints in watercolor, acrylic and mixed media and especially enjoys painting birds, both wild and domestic.
