Filled with a variety of patterns, simply detailed to very detailed, You will want to color every single picture! One per page!By Jackie CooperThe cover picture is included in this book and is representative of the flowing balanced art style that makes up every illustration, details vary from very simply detailed mandalas, to intricately detailed mandalas and the variety will catch you by surprise and inspire you .Just add color to these imaginative, artistic, flowing, and balanced mandalas, made up of Geometric Shapes, Flowers, Quilt patterns, Chains, Top Hats spinning, and Butterflies fluttering. If you love an imaginative variety of patterns in coloring, from simply detailed to very detailed patterns made up of distinct individual details perfectly outlined and balanced, like I do you will want to color every single image in this coloring book. 1. 40 Illustrations printed one per page (the back of each page is blank) printed on medium weight bright white paper. 2. Each illustration is centered on the page and leave a ½" space between the image and the binding for ease in coloring the entire image and it is easy to remove one page from the book with a box cutter or to take it to an office supply store and have the entire binding removed for a class or coloring party. 3. Most patterns are in circular mandala form, with 6 square patterns for variety. 4. All markers leak through the pages, I just place a piece of paper under the page I am coloring to prevent damage to the next page. 5. This book has been produced by 2 sisters who love to color and they have listed a web site inside the book for you to upload your illustrations to enter an art contest. This book even says the winners will receive prizes, just upload your images and/or vote on the images. 6. I am uploading images to help you decide if this book is just right for you. Received a free copy for evaluation and unbiased review.
