Piffa Schroder : Cocks Only before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cocks Only:

Piffa Schroder's regular column in The Shooting Gazette has a wide and enthusiastic following and this collection of her finest work will appeal to all who enjoy the countryside and the camaraderie of the shooting field. Wittily illustrated throughout with Tim Jaques' colourful cartoons, this is both the ideal gift and a 'must' for every game shot's bookshelf.

About the Author Piffa Schroder was raised in Ireland, and shoots regularly in Match Rifle competitions at Bisley, as well as with a sporting rifle in Britain and on the Continent. Every year she goes stalking in Scotland. She also fishes (about which, frankly, the less said the better). Her first articles appeared in Countrysport, she has written for Shooting Times and Country Magazine and now contributes regularly to The Shooting Gazette. The author lives in London. Tim Jaques is a designer, typographer, painter and illustrator, a keen game shot and fly-fisherman. He has contributed his witty, marvellously detailed illustrations to numerous books, including those by Jilly Cooper, Arthur Marshall and Douglas Sutherland.
