Alistair Sampson, Oliver Preston : Larder Limericks: Five-Liners for Foodies before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Larder Limericks: Five-Liners for Foodies:

In this sequel to Liquid Limericks, their irreverent book of boozy balladry, Anthony Sampson and Oliver Preston give a saucy and sophisticated slant on the world of hauteand not so hautescuisine. Celebrity chefs, fine food, faddy diets, and dining in and out are immortalized in this collection of over 80 witty limericks, poems, and cartoons.

About the AuthorAlistair Sampson wrote for 'Punch' magazine for a number of years and has written regularly for the 'Daily Express' and 'Sunday Express'. A renowned antique dealer, he has also written books of light verse and short stories, and appeared on television's 'Call My Bluff'. He lives in London. He collaborated with Oliver Preston on the bestselling 'Liquid Limericks', also published by Robson Books (1861055439). Oliver Preston's stylish cartoons have been published in 'The Times', the 'Guardian' and the 'Daily Mail' and he contributes regularly to 'Field' magazine. He was recently made chairman of the Cartoon Art Trust, and lives in Tetbury, Glos.
