This collection of poetry is cleverly written, carefully planned, and hilarious. The author writes on a range of subjects seen from the perspective of a small dog and her owner. They muse about common activities like gardening, eating and cleaning. Some go back to explore history like "Homage" and "Sweet Briar" which discuss The Magna Carta and Snow White. Don't know what to do when you can't sleep. You might want to read "Zombie Dawn." There is no end to the author's creativity. This book is a perfect remedy when you feel you need to kick back and have a good laugh. Highly recommended for anyone who loves a quick pick me up. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An Amusing Book of Clever Poems! By Jjspina Laughter Lines is an amusing book of poems cleverly written that will cause your laughter to bubble over. It is an extremely enjoyable romp through a dog's life and more. The author's poems carry a musical cadence that still resonant in my mind. Sue Vincent is a talented poet, author and storyteller extraordinaire. I look forward to reading more of her work. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Well done! Poetry with a flair! By Patrick Jones These poems were so much fun to read! Thank you for taking the time to write this wonderful piece of literature. It held my attention all the way through. I found my wife speaking in rhymes after she read it! Two kindred spirits :)

Take a life with a small dog in tow, add a dash of red hair dye, a selection of crumbling biscuits and a passion for recitable verse The result is a recipe for laughter. Sue Vincent shares her world in verse.

About the Author Sue Vincent is a Yorkshire born writer, esoteric teacher and Director of The Silent Eye. She is the author of The Osiriad and Sword of Destiny, as well as a number of books with Stuart France. Sue lives in Buckinghamshire, having been stranded there some years ago due to an accident with a blindfold, a pin and a map. She has a lasting love-affair with the landscape of Albion, the hidden country of the heart. She is currently owned by a small dog who also blogs.
