It brought back memories of my childhood in Scotland.

Allan Morrison has again scoured the hearts and minds of Scots at home and abroad to bring this hilarious compilation of sayings which reveal the inner workings of that most formidable of personalities...your mother! Over 350 lies and 250 truths are here and when you utter them you should have a scowl on your face and a lump in your throat!

About the Author Allan Morrison lives and works in Greenock, Scotland and has been collecting Scots sayings for much of his life. He is the former personnel manager at IBM, Greenock and is a keen hillwalker. This is his fifth book.
