Peggy Robison : Lofty Learnings from Life's Little Lessons before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lofty Learnings from Life's Little Lessons:

Have you ever tried to open a door using the wrong key? Has a faulty electrical appliance left you frustrated? Lofty Learnings is filled with life experiences with which most of us can identify. This book takes those happenings and adds a lesson for living. Reading these stories for personal pleasure or to use as an illustration in a sermon or speech is sure to bring enjoyment. Hopefully you will reflect and identify lofty learnings of your own.

About the Author Peggy Robison is a retired school teacher. As she taught the writing process to her students, she, too, became a better writer. Her Lofty Learnings stories became a way of focusing her thoughts into the written word.

Peggy currently lives in Florida with her husband, Gerald, and one independent Maine Coon cat, Murphy. Doris Clay brings her artistic talent to capture the illustrations for each story. She has been an artist for most of her life. Her paintings have brought great joy to those who have seen her work. Doris currently lives in Florida with her husband, Charles, and their entertaining Chihuahua, Prince Cody. This is not the first time Peggy and Doris have combined their talents. They have written, illustrated and published two children s books. Prince Cody Meets a Monster and Prince Cody Runs Ahead of the Hurricane features the adventures of Prince Cody and Murphy. Children and adults have enjoyed these delightful stories.
