Adorable Dogs with lovely big eyes – 32 Designs printed on one side of the pageBy iiiireader[[VIDEOID:c85366bd7a9929af98876e412b566988]]This is a coloring book with 32 Dog designs by Brenda Abdoyan. Each of the designs are titled by the dog(s) name. This book, along with her newly released “Funky Cats” are the first coloring books I have by this artist. In “Lovable Dogs”, the designs are almost realistic but still have enough doodles and other bits of odds and ends added to make coloring a fun experience. The dogs all have that slightly woe-be-gone look that tugs at my heart-strings.I chose “Roxy” as my first project as it reminded me of my sweet Cleo dog from when I was a little girl. I used a mix of alcohol and water-based markers to give a deep color to the project.The book is published by Design Originals. As usual with their books, there are a couple of pages dedicated to comments by the artist, colored examples of some of the projects in the book, and finally, journal lines and quotes on the back of the page. In this case, the artist pages are more limited but discuss medium and color choices. There are a number of colored examples and the quotes are all dog-related. As with "Funky Cats" there are a couple of illustrated dogs on the back cover and the inside flap that do not appear in the designs in this book. I would have loved to have the cute dachshund and hope to see it in a future book. Here is what I found in and about this book:

32 Dog Designs with some fun coloring doodles
Designs are printed on one side of the page
Paper is white and medium weight; slightly rough to the touch and pages are perforated
Glue Bound
Designs stop before the perforations
Designs all have a framing line around them. I always appreciate this touch – saves me time and ink in coloring
Alcohol and water based markers bleed through the paper
India ink pens bleed through the paper
Gel pens do not bleed through Coloring pencils work well with this paper. My softer lead pencils go on with good color and coverage and they layer and blend well. My hard lead pencils go on with good color but as typical with Design Originals books, they leave dents on the back of the page.

I love dogs and this book has lots of personality just like dogs do. There are great examples of how you can color them with different types of pencils and markers. I like the thicker lines in the drawings and the artist did a great job with not only the dogs but the background designs. A lot of the other books out there look alike and more computer generated and tedious. This one is fun and relaxing. I would highly recommend it.

Part of the group of these coloring books I bought for some friends' grandchildren. I used to do a lot of Doodle Art, and it is a lot of fun. Thinking about getting some for myself, good way to pass the time quietly when you just want to do something creative and stress free. These look really well made and I think the girls will like them. Bought some nice colored pencils and gel pens to use with these. Their grandma is a vet and owns a farm, so most I have chosen have to do with animals.

Brenda Abdoyan is a successful mixed-media artist who fell in love with the beauty of henna tattooing on a trip to the Middle East. Upon returning from her trip, she immediately began to incorporate the curves, twists, and intricate lines of henna tattooing into her own design style leading to the creation of a totally unique form of art that Brenda has coined "Bajidoo."
