I didn't have enough money to buy it at that time, i had taken my family out to dinner at Olive Garden on me and it was after dinner we went to Barnes and Noble and thats when i first saw it and thumbed through it. I knew right away i wanted this issue, so i went back the next day and there wasn't a single issue left on the stand. So i let it go all these years and about a month ago i was on looking for a true crime book called Mob star about John Gotti and as i scrolled down a bit there it was ,screaming at me to order it. The seller said it would take like 7-10 days to get here and it showed up right when he said it would. What i was most pleased about was the condition of the book, it was perfect considering its over 15 years old its like it was fresh off the press, and the shipping package it was in is what everyone who sells books or magazines should use. It was everthing I had hoped for. Thanks man. DB118
