About the AuthorRonne P. Barton is an artist living in western North Carolina and creates art on a daily basis in her home art studio. She loves to work with all media, but prefers colored pencils and acrylic. She has been creating art since she was a little girl and began selling original art work and fine art prints online in 2000. Creating cartoonish-appearing, light-hearted, heart-warming characters of whimsy and color or paint them with bright and bold colors is Ronne's favorite thing to do, but loves to create peacocks, orca whales, hummingbirds, wolves, etc, with colored pencils. Ronne also teaches art classes at the local community college in her area.
