Frankie Jones : Make a Memory Hen Party before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Make a Memory Hen Party:

Perfect for the bride-to-be and her BFFs. With these fun, daring photo cards hens will love posing for photos and selfies, stepping up to challenges and dares, and playing games on the bride's last night of freedom. Fun photo cards include captions such as '#TeamBride', 'I'm still single!', 'Best Hen Party Ever!' and much more, plus there are photo cards to personalise with your own messages. Spice the night up with the games, quizzes and challenges and make this a hen night to remember... or forget! There are lots of fun and fabulous photo cards in this pack to use to boost your selfie game and make memories to last. At the back of the pack you'll find dares, challenges and games, including:

- Scavenger Hunt Split into three teams and see if you can tick off all the items on the list by the end of the night.
- Pictionary There's a blank photo frame for hens to draw and guess whatever words come into their head. Use a wipe-clean pen to keep it clean, even if things get dirty.
- Never Have I Ever Find this game card and challenge the hens to a round or two of 'Never Have I Ever'!
- Snog, Marry, Avoid Dish out the 'Snog', 'Marry', 'Avoid' cards to the bride-to-be, then use the ideas on the rule list, or come up with your own to see who she would rather snog, marry or avoid!
- Bride-to-Be Quiz Test the bride-to-be's knowledge of her future spouse with these tricky questions. You can decide on her reward or punishment for right and wrong answers.
- Banned Words Refer to this list of banned words, and ask the bride to decide on a suitable penalty for anyone who utters one of the words or phrases on this list.
- Truth or Dare? Use the ideas on this card, or make up your own, for a classic game of truth or dare!
