Betty Misheiker : The Cow and the Cat before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Cow and the Cat:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A story to make kids laughBy M. WachtelI read this again two years after I originally read it, and it delighted me more than ever this time. The reason was that I was reading it with a 5 year old great-grandson. It made us both laugh and caused the little boy to say, "And then what happened?" That's a sign of a good book. The illustrations are perfect;

This poem tells a funny tale about a very strange cow that says "Meouw" instead of "Moo". No one understands what has happened except for Granny Schwartz who's wisdom solves the mystery.

About the AuthorBetty Misheiker has been writing for children since the early 50's. Her enormous body of work began when a childrens' radio producer, Kathleen Davydd asked her to write 13 commissioned children's programmes for the South African Broadcasting Corporation. She went on to write over 400 TV and Radio programmes, each of which included a song, a story and an activity for young people. Over her long and prolific career she has also written many musicals for the stage as well as puppet shows, plays, books, films and poems.
