S. L. Harrison, Edmund Duffy : The Editorial Art of Edmund Duffy before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Editorial Art of Edmund Duffy:

Edmund Duffy (1899-1962) was one of only five individuals to be awarded three Pulitzer prizes (1931, 1934, and 1940) for newspaper editorial cartooning. The Pulitzers came during Duffy's heyday at the Baltimore Sun. In later years he became editorial cartoonist for Newsday and The Washington Post during Herbert Block's absence. This collection of more than 250 Duffy cartoons provides a panoramic overview of those exciting times. Illustrated.
