It was so hard to find work and even harder to keep it! I could hardly function in society anymore - I could barely buy groceries. I couldn't understand anyone! Then I found this guide and suddenly I could communicate with the world again - I could finally understand Emoji. I am a biochemist now (I didn't even finish high school!) and I can't swing a dead cat around without knocking over a pile of job offers that arrive in the mail every day. More importantly, I have a lot of dead cats around because I'm so rich, I don't need to feed them, I just go buy new ones when they starve.This book changed my life forever.4 of 9 people found the following review helpful. there are some dirty things in here that had I known I wouldn't ...By MichelleShould warn that book is for older ones, there are some dirty things in here that had I known I wouldn't have bought.

"Words are no longer important. It's all emojis. We never really have to speak again, unless... Well sometimes there's not an emoji for what you're really trying to say. So you've got to improvise or get creative. That's the brilliance behind The Emoji-To-English Dictionary." - BroBible

"It had to happen. Adams Media has come out with The Emoji-to-English Dictionary, which treats the world-changing topic with all the seriousness it deserves, like when it links the symbols of pizza, a restroom, a boy running and an explosion. What do they add up to? Food poisoning, of course." -- SF Gate
