W. G. Van T. Sutphen : The Golfer's Alphabet before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Golfer's Alphabet:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Reprint of the 1898 Golpher's Alphabet By Mary DeLashmit This is a reprint of the 1898 book, The Golfer's Alphabet, a fun and funny book which today's golfers will appreciate just as much as their great-grandfathers did.

This delightful book of Frost cartoons was first published in 1898. With rhymes by Sutphen on the left, and drawings by Frost on the right, THE GOLFER'S ALPHABET has the feel of a 19th-century children's book. Frost captures in his drawings every aspect of a day of golf, making this the perfect gift for all golf lovers.
