Andrew Gasson, Rosemary Gasson : The Good Cat Food Guide before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Good Cat Food Guide:

Attention cat lovers, your prayers have finally been answered! The Good Cat Food Guide is the definitive guide to what you should be feeding you feline friend. From tins to sachets, dried biscuits to meaty chunks, smelly fish to tasty chicken, the book will give you the low-down on every delicacy known to the feline tongue. Employing a crack team of tasters, the guide dishes out 'Paws and Claws' ratings to let you know what's hot and what's not. Written in a witty, tongue-in-cheek style - without ever sacrificing accuracy or objectivity - and accompanied throughout by full-colour cartoons of the tasters at work and play, The Good Cat Food Guide is essential reading for anyone who cares about their pet.

"Very funny and has some great pictures too" * Woman's Own * "Amusing and informative" * Daily Mail *About the Author
Rosemary Gasson works as a property consultant to support her two felines: Waldo the Chief Inspector, an accident prone, 17lb Maine Coon; and Bronte, a one-part pedigree and three-parts miscellaneous moggie. Andrew Gasson, her brother, is an optometrist as well as a published author on such diverse subjects as Wilkie Collins and contact lenses. Andrew is like a Dutch uncle to all the world's felines, and feels that all cats should aspire to become members of the Feline Gourmet Society - where they can enjoy the world of fine feline eating.
