The Law School Trip (the insider's guide to law school) is an over-the-top parody about applying for, enrolling in and succeeding at law school.

"A delicious read from beginning to end." -- Grif Stockley -- author of Probable Cause and Religious Conviction "Fly, drive, walk, or crawl to buy The Law School Trip, a superb and highly entertaining parody of legal education." -- Professor Timothy R. Zinnecker "Heaps and mounds of undulating and ululating laughter. ... McClurg makes the law school experience sparkle and shine." -- The Law Teacher (Fall 2001) "Howlingly, gut-wrenchingly, turn purple and blow food out your nose funny!" -- The Bimonthly of Law Books, July-August 2001 "McClurg brings legal humor to new heights. ... Very, very funny!" -- Professor Myron Moskovitz "More pure pleasure than anything I've read in months." -- Professor Marianne Wesson -- bestselling author of Render Up the Body and A Suggestion of Death "The perfect antidote for legal education... A must read for law students, professors, and lawyers." -- Professor Gerry Hess -- Director of the Institute for Law School Teaching "What a 'Trip'! ... Truly a classic of legal humor." -- Professor David G. Owen "[A] one of a kind piece of work that you don't have to a lawyer or law student to love." -- Text-Book.com, reviewed by Jessica Bradburn "[D]ispense[s] buckets of advice without ever removing tongue from cheek. ... [A] loving parody ... from the eyes of one who knows." -- National Jurist, The Magazine for Law Students (Jan. 2002) About the Author Professor McClurg is an award-winning law professor who has taught at six law schools. His books and scholarly articles have been cited in more than 600 books, law journal articles and court opinions. His law school prep book, 1L of a Ride: A Well-Traveled Professor's Roadmap to Success in the First Year of Law School (West 2d ed. 2013), is assigned as required or recommended reading at many law schools. In addition to his scholarly writings, McClurg is the author/editor of two legal humor books, editor of Lawhaha.com, and wrote a monthly humor columnist in the American Bar Association Journal for four years. He has been quoted as a legal expert by National Public Radio, Time, U.S. News and World Report, the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, and many other media sources.
