James E. Atwood : The Leaven of Laughter for Advent and Christmas before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Leaven of Laughter for Advent and Christmas:

Humorous quotes and provocative anecdotes for 45 themes intrinsic to Advent and Christmas, organized for easy access for the busy professional or volunteer in the faith community.

About the AuthorJim Atwood is a retired Presbyterian Minister who was born in Detroit, Michigan, but lived most of his life in the South. He has been a son, an athlete, a pastor to three congregations, a missionary and student worker in Japan, and an activist for peace and justice. He is a grateful husband, proud father, doting grandfather, minister's spouse, and is addicted to sports and travel. He graduated in physical education from Florida State University, and holds Masters degrees from Union and Princeton Theological Seminaries, and a Doctor of Ministry Degree from McCormick Theological Seminary. He serves on the National Boards of The Presbyterian Peace Fellowship and The Coalition to Stop Gun Violence. His wife, Roxana, is also a retired Presbyterian Pastor. They have two children, Mebane and David, and four grandchildren. All of the above experiences, interests, avocations and relationships furnish grist for Jim's humor mill.
